

Concierge Company, The Fixer, is nominated for Top Lifestyle Business Award

The Fixer Concierge, one of the UK's favourite executive assistant and concierge companies providing personal concierge, corporate concierge and lifestyle management services to clients throughout the UK, has recently been nominated for two business awards.

Zulfi Hussain MBE Head of Business Development at The Fixer UK states that 'despite the tough climate we are still seeing an increase in the amount of requests and new client queries, especially coming from abroad. At the same time, it has been key to continue to work with our existing clients and deliver an excellent service - no matter what our clients wish for, we will aim to deliver.'

'The nominations that we have received are a way of recognising this achievement. The first nomination is for top concierge company with the prestigious 'London Lifestyle Awards' and then as 'Tourist and Hospitality Business' and 'Small Business of the Year' with the regional York Press Awards.'

The company provide a portfolio of personal services which include travel planning and booking, ticket booking, event management, personal and lifestyle services. For corporate organisations they focus on loyalty schemes for employees, client loyalty programs and front of house reception and concierge desks.

The company are awaiting to hear if they have been successful in reaching the finals which are due to be announced in August.
